

Potential Tax Identification Number for Foreigners in Turkey

A potential Tax Identification Number is a unique number issued by the Government Tax Office. While 'Tax Number' is used by citizens to pay taxes, 'Potential Tax ID Number' is a form of temporary ID number for foreigners who want to engage in official authority transactions in Turkey without a Turkish Resident Permit or Citizenship.

Why would you need a Tax ID in Turkey?

Possible transactions using a Potential Tax ID number include:

- Opening a Bank Account,
- Transferring Title Deeds,
- Buying and Selling Vehicles,
- Obtaining Insurance Services,
- Starting a Business,
- To apply for Residence Permit,
- To apply for Citizenship

How can Foreigners Get a Tax ID Number?

If the applicant has already visited Turkey with the passport used to apply for a Potential Tax ID Number, they may receive a Possible Tax ID Number online via the Government Tax Authority's website.

Potential Tax Identification Number for Foreigners in Turkey

If the applicant has never traveled to Turkey or has entered Turkey with a different/previous passport, the Government Tax Offices may issue a Potential Tax ID number.

On behalf of their client, foreign legal representatives/attorneys can get a Potential Tax ID Number via Power of Attorney online or in the Government Tax Office.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to conduct official transactions in Turkey! If you're a foreigner without a Turkish Resident Permit or Citizenship, you can still obtain a Potential Tax Identification Number to conduct business and engage in official transactions. At Bayraktar Attorneys, our team of experienced lawyers can assist you in obtaining a Potential Tax ID Number quickly and efficiently, allowing you to conduct the transactions you need to make. Contact us today to learn more about how we can help you obtain your Potential Tax ID Number and make your time in Turkey as productive as possible.

