

The Contract Drafting Procedure and Resolution of Conflicts in Turkey

The Contract Drafting Process and Conflict Resolution in Turkey

Contracts are integral to the majority of business and daily life transactions. Knowing the fundamentals of contract law can assist you in ensuring that your agreements are lawful, enforceable, and accomplish their intended purposes.

Our attorneys respond to the demands of customers who have entrusted them with any type of legal matter pertaining to contracts, beginning with the preparation of the contract for the most favorable outcome for the client and continuing until the contract is signed between the parties. In addition to the above-mentioned contracts, Bayraktar Attorneys provides legal services for movable and immovable property sale contracts, the donation contract, the contract of service, the contract of representation, the freelance contract, and sui generis contracts such as franchise, know-how, and sponsorship contracts, as well as for conflicts that arose both before and after the signing of the contract.

Similarly, our attorneys provide services pertaining to operations on the violation of contract terms, the penal clauses, the lapse into default, and the interest for the default in the contract, as well as conflicts arising from the properly canceled contract by the clients, and then again the violation of the procedure in cancellation.
